February 15, 1927.

Dear Miss Hamand::

I have just received the enclosed letter. You see that the gentleman wants your address. I do not know whether you want me to have it or not but it struck me that you might like to answer the questions yourself. You know so much more than I do about the Rutledge family so I am writing him that I have forwarded the letter to you.

I hope you are well, dear Miss Hammond and that you are adjusting yourself to life without your brother. I can appreciate how hard it must be for you.

With sympathy and affection,

Miss Jane Hamandd,
Shaller, Iowa.

Digital Images, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.