April 5, 1939

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I had planned to meet you at Cambridge Springs, but it looks now as if I shall go to Portland, Oregon to see Mr. Everel S. Collins in the hope that we can enlist some financial aid for the college. Dr. Rowlingson will be here, however, and will meet you at Cambridge Springs Friday morning, April 14th. He will take you to the Venango Inn and after you have had an opportunity to unpack and rest a bit will bring you on to the Library.

I think you know that the Easter vacation begins this week Thursday and continues until Monday morning, the 17th. Dean Skinner may not be here at the time you arrive, but will be back by the 16th. Miss Rowley will be here all through the vacation period, as will many of the others. We are all looking forward to seeing you.

Sincerely yours,

William P. Tolley
