Lincoln

April 15, 1930

Dear Mr. Hambrecht:

I have just returned from several weeks absence and find in my cumulative mail your letter of March 25th. ack'd

I am glad enough to know that you are returning to your Lincoln work. I have been meaning to write you to know whether it was an abandoned interest or not. I could hardly believe that.

Of course, I shall be proud to autograph the books if you will send them to me and will try to find an appropriate sentiment to add to the autograph. Please call my attention to anything in the Lincoln world that interests you. I suppose, of course, that you have seen the recent volume of The Abraham Lincoln Association - "New Letters and Papers of Lincoln." It seems to be admirably done - a real addition.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Geo. P. Hambrecht
