December 30, 1926.

Mr. Henry G. Leach, Editory
The Forum,
247 Park Avenue,
New York City

My dear Mr. Leach:

Thank you for sending me the proof of Lord Shaw's article on "Lincoln as a Lawyer1" I read it last night with admiration for its sympathy and eloquence. There is much fresh comment in it most interesting to me. He is right, no doubt, when he says that it is in the law that Lincoln found his chief discipline, though I do not think he proves his case but this article strikes me as an unusually fine short review and estimate of the man's life rather than any particular contribution to Lincoln as a lawyer. I am perhaps captious. At any rate, I congratulate you on securing an admirable contribution for your wide awake fine-minded Forum.

Very sincerely yours,

IMT BWK.

Digital Image 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library