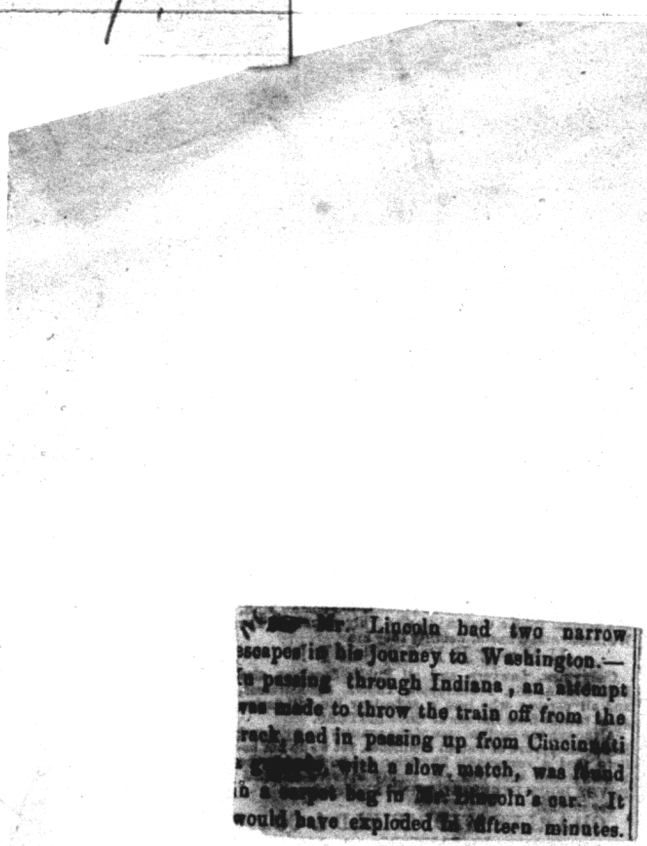
7. See article on ~~Greel~~ Lincoln in Greeley's Busy Life anecdote of spassing through N. Y. on Trip to Washington. 7.



Mr. Lincoln had two narrow escapes in his journey to Washington.—In passing through Indiana, an attempt was made to throw the train off from the track, and in passing up from Cincinnati a [illegible], with a slow match, was found in a carpet bag in Mr. Lincoln's car. It would have exploded in fifteen minutes.
