Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
% McCall's Magazine,
236-250 West 37th St.,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

The idea of an autobiography is certainly dead after reading your article in McCall's, for it is much better to let one's posterity believe any part of that article than ever to throw any sidelights upon it.

Outside and beyond the article, I have the feeling that I have known you for a very long time and I do hope that I will see you in the very near future as one looks forward to seeing the friends of one's childhood. I am sailing for Spain on the 30th of this month and hope on my return that you will need a rest in Florida and will come and stay as long as you like.

Your devoted "old" friend,

Addison Mizner
