September 6, 1924

Dear Rutger:

Thank you for your letter and the September check. I shall be in town until Thursday or Friday afternoon and shall be glad to have a chance to talk with you. I will be free Monday evening and also Wednesday afternoon and evening. Let me know which time suits you best and we will talk over anything that needs further discussion.

I can tell you then, too, how the Judge takes the change of plan for I am to see him Monday morning.

Faithfully yours,
