GOLDIE & GUMM
1540 BROADWAY
NEW YORK

April 18, 1929.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 E. 19th Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Pursuant to yours of the 11th inst., we have submitted to N. W. Ayer & Son the results of our correspondence with Allen T. Simmons, owner of Station W A D C and have requested their thoughts on the matter. As soon as we have their reply, we will communicate same to you.

With reference to the use of "HE KNEW LINCOLN" by Miss DeWolf, a clipping in reference to which was forwarded to you by my secretary, I do not think that the Eveready people desire us to take any action in reference to the same. On the contrary, it is my thought that they merely wished to call attention to the publicity being given to the work by their broadcasting of same. In view of the fact that by profession Miss DeWolf is a lawyer, I do not believe that she has used or intends to use the work professionally.

Sincerely yours,

HHG:ES

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library