MR. BOK'S OFFICE

The seventeenth of June
Nineteen hundred and twelve

My dear Miss Tarbell :

Thank you very much for your note, and I am sure I can get up courage to walk into the Colony Club — where, by the way, I never have been and which I am most anxious to see — on Wednesday of this week at one o'clock. I am, by the way, a very modest guest to have at luncheon, as I always confine myself to crackers and milk.

Anticipating the pleasure of a talk with you, believe me

Very sincerely yours,

Edward Bok
