No VI

July 26, 1935

Dear Mr. Conant:

I want to introduce into Number VI a couple of paragraphs in regard to the industrial training program of the Eastman Kodak Company and what is important the way it relates itself to the Rochester Public Technical High School and the town's Mechanic Institute. I will do this on the galley proofs or if you prefer on the copy which you can return to me at your convenience.

Very sincerely

P.S. Would Mr. Mayes object to a footnote calling attention to my carelessness in making Goodyear Goodrich in the third article? Or would he think it better to let a sleeping dog lie, if it is sleeping?
