6 August 1912.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Referring to the matter of the lot of land at Concord which you agreed to purchase from the Concord School Company.

I never heard whether Mr. Wilson took over your contract and paid you the amount of money which you had paid on it. If so, the amount so paid you should have included the sum of $30.00 which you remitted to me some time in March or April 1911. Owing to some misunderstanding, I returned this amount to you by my check of May 3, 1911 instead of paying the amount over to the trustees of the Concord School Company. You endorsed my check over to John M. Siddall and he in turn to C.H. Holland, if I read the signature correctly, so I suppose you will find no record of this check in your bank account. I am sorry to bother you about the matter at this late day, but as I received the money and it belonged to the trustees of the Concord School Company, I am bound to account for it. I shall be much obliged therefore if you will remit the amount when convenient. If Mr. Wilson has not taken over your contract for the land and paid you for it, please let me know and I will try to poke him up. I will try to send you a personal letter in a few days. It is a long time since I have heard from you. I am, as always,

Sincerely yours,

Miss Ida M. Tarbell.
