Atlantic City N. J.
December 21, 1936

Miss Tarbell
120 East Nineteenth St.
New York, New York

Dear Miss Tarbell,

I realize that the long delay in answering your letter is unpardonable, and that my being busy is no valid excuse.

However, since it is better late than never, I take this opportunity of thanking you for your condescending response.

Your article, of course, was put in our school magazine The Herald, as a featured article. The least we can do to show our gratitude is to send you a copy of the magazine, which, by the way is my first attempt, and which, I hope, you will excuse for the inexperience shown. (It will be sent under separate cover)

I trust that by this time your broken arm is healed and that you are in excellent health, which you rightly deserve. My parents also send their best regards.

Sincerely yours,

Albert Myerson

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.