

120 East 19 St., New York City.

September 20, 1921

Mr. H. S. Dennison,
Framingham, Mass.

My dear Mr. Dennison:

I see that you, as I, have been called to Washington for the Unemployment Conference; and I suppose that you feel as I do that this is one of the things that cannot be declined.

Of course going down there knocks my schedule to bits. I am cancelling all my engagements at the Safety Congress, and the voice of C. W. Price is lifted in rage and protest. I am sorry about it, but I don't see how I can be in two places at once. I don't feel that I am of very much importance in either place, but it seems quite clear to me that Washington should have precedence.

Of course it means that I cannot go to Framingham. If you are in Washington, as I suppose you will be, we can talk over our "Old Girls" there and I can make the changes to which you referred.

Will you not tell Mrs. Dennison how sorry I am that I am not to see her now?

With all good wishes,

Very sincerely yours,