April 29, 1927.

Madam Jacob Reich,
498 Seventh Ave.,
New York City.

My dear Madam Reich:

Some weeks ago I had the pleasure of visiting your Work Rooms with Mr. James Wallen. Mr. Wallen had told me enough of your business history for me to want to know more and your son, who courteously showed us about, assured me that you would be willing to talk to me of your struggle and success. I hope this is true. Could I make an appointment with you for some morning next week, of if you are busy, in the morning, some afternoon? I would be glad to go to your office any morning or afternoon convenient to you, Thursday and Friday excepted. If more convenient you might ask your secretary to telephone me, preferably in the morning, at Stuyvesant 6674.

Very sincerely,

IMT BWK.

Digital Images, 2010. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.