Dear Miss Forrester:

Some little time ago I wrote my friend Flora Mai Holly asking about your whereabouts, saying that I wanted to have a talk with you about your book "The Mad Act." She writes me now that you are my neighbor. I should get hold of you at once if you were willing but that I am off tomorrow night for six weeks work in my old College, Allegheny, at Meadville, Pa. I will be back by the end of May and I hope you will be around then and come to the National Arts Club for lunch or tea with me so that we can have a good talk.

Looking forward to meeting you, believe me

Very sincerely yours
