

October 28, 1932

My dear Mr. Douglas:

In an article which is to be published in a forthcoming number of the Cosmopolitan I have made a brief, too brief for my own satisfaction, reference to your book, The Problem of Unemployment. The editor has come back to me with a request for photographs of yourself and Mr. Director. It seemed best to apply directly to you. I hope that you will be willing to let them have the pictures. Will you not send them direct to Miss Dorothy Giles, Cosmopolitan, International Magazine Building, 57th St. & 8th Avenue. I shall appreciate your co-operation in this matter.

Very truly yours

Mr. Paul H. Douglas
The Macmillan Company
60 Fifth Avenue
New York City