May 20, 1927.

Mr. George J. Kelday,
International Harvester Company,
606 South Michigan Ave.,
Chicago, Ill.

My dear Mr. Kelday:

I have delayed thanking you for your letter of May 9th answering my previous queries because I wanted to ask a favor of you. What you say about the woman in your Hamilton Twine Mill interested me very much and if you can arrange it, I should like to run up there for a day or two. I could go the week after next, that is the first week of June and I should like to talk with the young woman that you have in your council, particularly with the woman that you have put in charge of the coreroom. I should like to find out her experiences as a boss of men and how they feel about her.

I hope you have confidence enough in my discretion dear Mr. Kelday, to know that I would be discreet in my observations and questions.

Can you give me the introduction necessary to make the visit? I shall greatly appreciate it.

Very sincerely,

IMT BWK.

Digital Images, 2010. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.