Miss Ida Tarbell,
Democratic Committee,
New York, N.Y.

My dear Miss Tarbell:-

I was more than pleased to receive your letter of the 17th and will await the copy of "Collier's". I had heard of it frequently, but I have simply not been able to get hold of one.

Now in regard to Julien, please understand that I am not hunting a job for him or seeking for advancement, but I believe that he is willing to offer any service within his power if he is considered a fit person for the same. Senator Tydings could send for him and look him over, which added to the information that you can give him, will give him some basis to judge. Julien's address is 357 Fifth Street, Brooklyn, N.Y. His 'phone number is South 7100. I think he could give an evening occasionally or Saturdays, if not too far removed from New York.

In case you have not seen it, I call your attention to the New York Times of September 18th, page 4, article entitled, "Fight in Virginia Laid to Religion". It strikes me that this is good campaign material for speakers to use. I have no doubt that Senator
