My dear Miss Carroll

I sent you yesterday a copy of a letter I had sent to Mr. Dickson re: presence of the middle stick. A mutual friend Mr. Shelton went over today and today to urge his acceptance. They discussed the matter for an hour and Mr. Shelton thinks he is tending toward the plan. He is to be sure know early in the week. In the mean time he is going to talk the matter over with Mr. Chadbourne. I would wonder if any chance you had seen enough of Mr. Chadbourne to get "chummy" with him & that perhaps you might help the thing along. I told Shelton that I had sent you a copy of the letter and I don't know whether he told Mr. Deussen. But I don't believe there can be any harm in your taking the place over with Mr. Chadbourne if it appeals to you. It might easily be turned over to him.

Sincerely

Wm. R. Coole
