Dear Miss Tarbell,-

I know you will enjoy the way somebody butchered your book in The Eagle of May 10. The earnest reviewer is apparently trying very hard to tell people that they ought to read "The Rising of the Tide." If he only had some way of forcing people to read the review the plan might work.

The Eagle book page is farmed out to all sorts of people,-your book was allotted to a muggy one.

With best wishes

Guy Hottel
