

1931-09-16

Letter: Oscar Graeve to Ida M. Tarbell, September 16, 1931

Graeve, Oscar

<http://hdl.handle.net/10456/18127>

This item is in the public domain.

All materials in the Allegheny College DSpace Repository are subject to college policies and Title 17 of the U.S. Code.

Delineator

BUTTERICK BUILDING
NEW YORK

EDITORIAL OFFICES

September 13, 1931.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

You're always so nice to work with, so sympathetic toward another's point of view.

I think the Arizona article will be long enough with the Hoover Dam cut down to a paragraph or two and without any further additions.

I'll telephone you early next week so that we may have a little chat about further articles.

Yours sincerely,

Oscar Graeve
Editor

Miss Ida M. Tarbell
120 East 19th Street
New York, N.Y.