My dear Miss Tarbell:-

I am wondering if anything has ever been done about the transfer of copyright on your books published by the McClure Phillips Company. I sent you last September, I believe, a form for the holder of the copyrights to sign, but so far as I can recall this has never been returned. I do not like to trouble you in the matter and please don't believe that I am hurrying you in any way. It seems rather too bad, however, to have these copyrights in the name of a defunct company.

Yours very truly,

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY.
