DIRECTOR, COMMUNITY VESPER SERVICE

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East Nineteenth Street,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

We are anticipating with keen interest your visit to our church Sunday, February 12th.

As you know it is our thought to have you present some message in keeping with Lincoln's Birthday. It need not necessarily be entirely a "Lincoln Address". We would be glad if you would care to combine some phase of Lincoln's life or idealism with today. However, we want you to present whatever message you deem most fitting for the occasion.

I would appreciate receiving your topic as soon as you can conveniently send it. I should like to announce it in the bulletin which goes to press Thursday morning, January 17th. Should you prefer to send more than one topic, we will be glad to make a selection. This is merely a suggestion to you and please regard it as such.

With kind regards and best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Helen D. Chase
