CONCERNING Housing Development.

OFFICE OF
GROSVENOR ATTERBURY, ARCHITECT
20 West 43d St., New York

TELEPHONE VANDERBILT 1834-1835
CABLE "GROSVENATY", NEW YORK

GROSVENOR ATTERBURY, F. A. I. A.

WILLIAM E. BUTLER
PHILIP E. LANGWORTHY
CHARLES C. MAY

STOWE PHELPS, A. I. A. JOHN ALMY TOMPKINS, A. I. A.

WILLIAM WILSON, C. E.

W. F. ANDERSON

Jan. 13, 1917.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
132 East 19th St.,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

The last message I had from you this Fall was to the effect that you wanted to talk to me about the Housing problem before you finished that subject in your new book.

The Architectural Record has just come in with an account of the Indian Hill Village in it, and the American Architect with a considerable portion of an address which I made at Providence this Fall, before the Housing Association. As the latter gives a pretty good general statement of the principles and aims of our work in trying to make a "Ford" house for the laboring man, I am venturing to send it to you, with the other magazine.

The Providence talk seems to have started a good many people up and has accomplished, in every way, more than I had any idea it would.

I have not quite forgiven you for electing Wilson but, in spite of it, remain

Very sincerely,

Grosvenor Atterbury

GA/C

I find we are out of ~~Arch'l Record~~ American Archt. but will send one in a few days.

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library