New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I forwarded Mr. Amos Estep a check for $5 and requested him to look over the record of the Linvell Baptist Church and ascertain whether it contained any mention of the Scarborough family. He thereupon mailed the same to me and I now have it in my possession. It is in one hand writing and I would therefore think it is a copy of the original.

I would suppose that it would cost from $25 to $75 to have six copies made of the same. I have established from it that John Lincoln was a member of the church and his wife's name was Mary. I think it is a pity if I am compelled to return this record to the farm house in the cove of Brock's Gap without its first being copied to preserve it from danger of fire. My stenographer would be willing to make six copies of the record at her regular rate of $21 per week.

I do not know what it might say about the Lincolns other than that fact that John Lincoln and his wife were members.

If you would be willing to contribute toward having the record copied, I would be pleased to be advised to what extent. I
