Dear Miss Tarbell:

The judge gave us a suspended sentence for running an employment agency without a license and spoke very sharply to the inspector who succeeded in the closing of our doors at a time when there were so many jobs for people out of work.

Please do not bother about my S O S to you of a few days ago if it comes to your attention. We were so eager to bring all possible influence to bear on the magistrate.

Cordially yours,

Reinette Lovewell Donnelly
