Sunday morning
June 26th

Dear Ida

I am going to write you this morning if this shakeey old head of mine will only behave its self long enough for me to tell you that we here agirl in our kitchen a Penna German girl, about 18 I should think; has been here since Wednesday morning. Seems all right so far, neat willing and has been well trained by a good mother, I think. Does not incline to run nights and promises not to be on the streets at all unless positively necessary. If she holds out as she has begun, we have done well to wait. Though I was about all in, ready to give up the ship - I am now under Dr B - care and obeying orders to live out of doors. all I can in the mornings keep quiet and out of the kitchen I am willing!! My whole system was in a very torped state. Liver stomach and bowels refusing to do their duties and would not obey orders - cause, that Grippe cold and cough I had at St Davids and over work. I don't think the work would have hurt if I had been in good condition

I am doubly glad on Lara's account that we have help as it was to hard for her. and she was worrying on account of this trouble with my head. all caused by the billiousness ~~of my~~

Are you having any warm weather with you! Are you in Washington. Boston or Bethel! It was fearfuly hot here till friday there came a cool wave and the weather has been delightful since - I was up this morning before 7 o'clock. It was perfect! and is now at 10 A.M. Just wind enough to stir the tree tops. and keep the air cool

We need rain though. How you must have enjoyed (?) your yacht trip. Wind. rain and sea sickness a very interesting combination!! Better try something else next time Titusville! for instance we would try to treat you better.

Will was here the 22 and 23
We expect him and Scott here about the 4th for a few days. I shall be very glad to [illegible] them. and glad I have a maid in the cooking department.
How it does symplify things and make them easier to have good help. Why [illegible] (the maid) does not even for get to empty the water pan under the refrigerator.
Now refuse to right up and dust the rooms every morning before breakfast. How is your garding doing? mine is fine. all things considered no cherries: no appels: this year - but currants and goos berries galore - Hope you are at Bethel now Give my love to Esther. I wish she could visit in this summer. Good by for this
