May 16, 1935

My dear Mr. Graham:

Some little time ago Mr. Conant of the Pictorial Review wrote you in regard to [redacted] to guide me in preparing a series of editorial comments which I have undertaken for the periodical.

The material which you so kindly sent has been a very real help although my space is so limited that I can use it very inadequately. In your letter of March 22nd you said to Mr. Conant that you would be willing to talk with me. I should like very much to talk over the social security bill - not to quote you of course without your permission - but with the hope that my mind may be cleared up a little.

Would it be possible for you to see me either Wednesday, Friday or Saturday of the coming week? If those days are not convenient any time the following week.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. William J. Graham
393 Seventh Avenue
New York City

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library