MISS HELEN D. CHASE, CHURCH EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, COMMUNITY VESPER SERVICE

June 29, 1932.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

At a recent meeting of our Community Vesper Service Advisory Committee, it was the unanimous desire that I invite you to speak at our vesper service Sunday afternoon, February 12th.

We recall with keen pleasure and profit your previous visits to our church and do hope that circumstances may permit you to come to us this season. We are especially eager for that Sunday because we want to have a message from you regarding Lincoln. When Lincoln's birthday was mentioned as coming on Sunday, your name was the only one considered for the address that day.

We are endeavoring to keep these services on the same high plane as that of other years. To our regret we have found it necessary to reduce the average honorarium. However, we shall be glad to meet the same honorarium that you so kindly accepted on previous occasions, namely, one hundred dollars.

It would indeed be a privilege and a joy to have you as our guest and speaker again. May I dare to hope for a favorable reply.

With kind personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Helen D. Chase
