FOUR NINETY RIVERSIDE DRIVE
NEW YORK, N. Y.

March 28, 1933

Miss Anne Morgan,
3 Sutton Place,
New York, N. Y.

My dear Miss Morgan:

Miss Gleason, our club president, turned over to me the blank to fill out with the name of our candidate for the A.W.A. award at the Friendship Dinner next fall. It is enclosed herewith, presenting the name of Miss Frances Perkins.

This choice was made by giving to each member present at our last dinner meeting a printed copy of the paragraph describing the award and qualifications necessary for the candidate, with a space for the name of the women they would like to see have it.

Miss Perkins received twice as many votes as any other name. Miss Lillian Wald was next, and others suggested were Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Mrs. Roosevelt, Mrs. August Belmont, Mrs. Pearl Buck.

I hope the information on the blank is complete enough.

Yours very sincerely,
