August 3, 1922

Mrs. Anna T. Lincoln,
Hingham, Mass.

My dear Mrs. Lincoln:

Please pardon the delay in replying to your note of July 24, I am only just returning from a week in the country, nursing a neuritic arm.

I am so sorry that after all your trouble the photograph of the page that I wanted from the Cushing manuscript was not a success. You are very good to say that the local photographer may try his camera on it, and I am going to take advantage of your kindness.

Please believe me, my dear Mrs. Lincoln, I appreciate very much your courtesy. It is in the interest of historical accuracy, something which I know you understand and value highly.

The photographer of whom Mr. Page wrote me is Mr. Woodside. I suppose that he is the one to whom you refer in your letter. I am writing him today, asking him to arrange for a time to go to your house when it would be quite convenient to you.

Very sincerely yours,

Digital Images, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.