ALLEGHENY DEBATERS DEFEAT WOOSTER AND OBERLIN TEAMS

Affirmative Team Triumphs Unanimously and Negative 2 to 1

In the second debate of the season, Allegheny's affirmative team won from Oberlin College on last Thursday, March 12, at home, and the negative team won also from Wooster College on Friday, March 13, at Wooster, Ohio. The question in both cases was, "Resolved, That the United States should ratify the Geneva protocol for the pacific settlement of international disputes." The debate was a triangular affair in which Oberlin's negative team came to Allegheny, Allegheny's negative team went to Wooster, and Wooster's negative team debated at Oberlin.

The debate at home was held in Ford Memorial Chapel. Allegheny's affirmative team, Messrs. J. B. Gordon, E. J. Schruers, R. W. Leeper, and R. J. Corbett, alternate, clearly won the contest by superiority of delivery and effective presentation of material. The judges returned an unanimous decision. Oberlin's negative team, composed of Messrs. Jacob Clayman, W. R. McGill, and Ralph Andrews, presented very good arguments to uphold its points.

The affirmative argued that the United States should ratify the protocol because, (1) it is the logical arrangement to meet the needs of the world today, (2) our interests in problems of Latin America demand ratification, (3) it would further our interest in peace and disarmament in Europe. The arguments of the negative were based on the following points: The United States should not ratify the protocol because, (1) the success of the protocol hinges on international integrity which does not exist at the present time, (2) the protocol is bound up with the League of Nations with all its vicious machinery, (3) it is impossible for the United States to cooperate with Europe due to the alliances which exist there at present, and the enforcement of compulsory arbitration by sanction is not in accord with the United States policy, (4) the United States would be bound to assist in maintaining the vicious status quo of Europe, and further the United States can do more for the cause of peace as a non-ratifying nation.

President Franklin C. Southworth of the Meadville Theological School, presided at the debate in Ford Chapel. The judges were C. E. Brockway, member of the Mercer County Bar, Sharon, M. L. Brown, Principal Corry

DEAN OF EASTERN SCHOOL VISITS COLLEGE WEDNESDAY

J. A. BEEBE OF BOSTON THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL TALKS TO STUDENTS

Dean J. A. Beebe, of the Boston University School of Theology, spoke at Chapel exercises last Wednesday morning, March 11. Using as his text the story of the wedding guest who was not properly clothed for the occasion, Dean Beebe stated that the external characteristics could not be separated from the internal ones in men. Quoting from Thomas Carlyle, the Dean said that the primary purpose of garments is not to clothe one but to reveal his spirit or his mood. One's clothes must be appropriate for the work in which he is engaged. At times one must wear his oldest and at others he must wear his best.

One's apparel may be likened unto his spirit or mood. The wedding guest did not think highly enough of the occasion to even go home and attire himself in his best garments. The lesson of the story is the fact that one must come to the great occasions of his life in an appropriate mood or mental dress to meet them. Most students of today have the right attitude toward education but there are always a few who, like the wedding guest, come in the wrong garments. In education, religion, art, or anything worth while, the thing of importance is the mood in which the approach is made. One should select the spirits or moods which are noblest n life and cultivate them.

Dean Beebe stated that Allegheny is well represented in both quality and numbers by graduate students engaged in religious study at Boston University. Of the two great fellowships awarded by Boston University to enable students to study abroad, the Jacob Leeper Fellowship and the Frank D. Howards Fellowship, the latter has been awarded for this year to Edwin Booth, an Alleghenian.

Mr. F. H. Hammon, '19, who has been a missionary teacher in South America, has returned to the United States and, with his family, has been visiting his parents at 3114 Iowa Street, Pittsburgh. His father, Mr. W. H. Hammon, is of the class of '81.

SKEYHILL SPEAKS BEFORE APPRECIATIVE AUDIENCE

WAR VETERAN ADDRESSES TWO GROUPS IN FORD CHAPEL AND STONE CHURCH

Tom Skeyhill, noted traveler, lecturer, poet, and student of world affairs, delivered two interesting lectures in Meadville under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. last Wednesday, March 11. At 4:00 P. M. he spoke in Ford Chapel to a number of students and members of the College faculty. The evening lecture was given in the auditorium of the Stone Church before a small but appreciative audience.

Skeyhill's afternoon lecture dealt with a history of past civilizations and an insight into the present civilization. Speaking without notes or references of any kind, he described the rise and fall of the ancients. Three points were named as the primary causes for the decline of each of the old civilizations: biological ungodliness, war, and man's inherent savagery.

The lecturer proved that our modern civilization was headed for chaos and would eventually be replaced as were the many others which preceded it. Our only salvation lies in the fact that we are the first civilization to be able to diagnose our case and determine the factors which are leading us to destruction.

In the evening, Skeyhill had as his theme "The Trojan Way." He told of his many experiences with the British army in the Dardenelles during the recent war. With vivid illustrations of actual warfare before his audience, Skeyhill pointed out that the youth of today was opposed to war and had learned enough about it in the recent conflict to know that it was all wrong and that the winner sometimes loses out in the end.

Skeyhill represented a type of lecturer new to this vicinity. He is a young man, well under 30, and has had the experience of having been totally blind for two years. He was blinded in the service, and was miraculously healed by a Washington specialist. He has been spending all of his time since the war in research tours through foreign lands and compiling the lectures which he now delivers in a delightful manner.

HUMOROUS PUBLICATION NEEDS FINANCIAL AID

ALLIGATOR CRAVES NOURISHMENT IN FORM OF GREENBACKS

During the past two weeks two small animals in the Biology Laboratory have been causing speculation as well as amusement because of the queer way in which they have been conducting themselves. At first even Dr. Darling was at loss to explain their antics.

Dr. Darling thought for a time that he was about to make a great biological discovery, but he soon found there were plenty of reasons for their strange actions. These animals were none other than two baby alligators which the department has had for some time. In some way they have found out that Allegheny is to become the home of an alligator much bigger, funnier, and more interesting than these two animals have ever hoped to see so far from the sunny southland.

In other words they have found out that the "Allegheny Alligator" comes to life within the next three weeks. Alligators are not noted for their frivolity, but this one is different from the usual alligator in many ways. This alligator has a seemingly invisible tail but closer inspection shows that "Alligator Tales" have their share in its makeup. Another strange fact about this alligator is that it has a paper back.

One thing is perplexing the future guardians of this lively animal—the "Allegheny Alligator" must have food of a green variety to make it grow into a well developed individual. The only available food of this nature is "greenbacks." All contributions of food will be greatly appreciated.

MARCH 24 IS DATE SET FOR TWO FRENCH PLAYS

PRESENTATION TO BE GIVEN UNDER AUSPICES OF LE PETIT SALON

Next Tuesday, March 24, has been decided upon as the date for the presentation of "Le Medecin Malgre Lui" and "La Grammaire," the two French plays to be given by "Le Petit Salon." The entertainment will begin at 8:00 o'clock in Ford Memorial Chapel. Since the first of the year the casts have been working under the direction of Professor R. F. Mezzotero and Miss Violet Gardner.

A light humorousness, so characteristic of many French writings, can readily be depicted in both of these plays. "Le Medecin Malgre Lui," by Moliere, in particular, has an outstanding realistic satire directed at the medical profession of the time.

The first act opens with Sganarelle, a woodcutter, beating his wife, Martine. But when Robert, a neighbor, comes to Martine's aid, she sides with her husband. Martine, however, directs Valere and Lucas, two servants

FROSH DEFEATS JUNIORS IN BASKETBALL FINALS

FIRST YEAR MEN WIN CLASS LEAGUE LAURELS BY 17-11 VICTORY

Displaying the classiest brand of basketball exhibited in the class league this season, the Freshmen defeated the Juniors at the gymnasium Saturday, March 14, in the play-off for the championship, and won thereby the right to place their numerals on the bronze plaque in the trophy room.

The Freshman team started out with a speedy offensive, and held the lead at the end of the first quarter, 8-0. The Juniors were helpless before the fast passing game of the first-year men. The teams scored an equal number of points during the second period, the Juniors finding themselves and showing some pretty team work toward the end of the half. The score then was 13-5.

In the third quarter the Juniors outplayed their opponents, scoring four points to the Freshmen's one. Babcock, who had been substituted at the beginning of the last half, showed some pretty floorwork in this period.

But the Freshmen once more opened up, and scored several pretty field baskets in the final quarter, while holding the upper-classmen to one field goal. The final score was 17-11. Every member of the winning team played stellar basketball. Hanlon and Babcock played best for the Juniors.

Score:

Freshmen, 17.		Juniors, 11.
Allen	F.	Anderson
C. Cossman	F.	Riemer
E. Cossman	C.	Parnell
Brace	G.	Hanlon
Hudson	G.	Dolde

Substitutions: Babcock for Anderson.

Field goals: Brace 3, Allen 3, Hanlon 2, Babcock, C. Cossman.

Foul goals: Freshmen, 3 out of 9; Juniors, 5 out of 9.

Time of quarters: Eight minutes. Referee, Cibula. Umpire, Coach Hammett.

Men's Bible Class Discusses Chief Functions of Church

Last Sunday morning in Ford Chapel, the Men's Bible Class, led by Dr. Darling, defined the chief function of the Church as the bringing about of the kingdom of God. In the history of the United States, the advance of the kingdom is marked by the freeing of the slaves, the abolition of the liquor traffic, woman suffrage, and the recent exposure of the oil scandal. Each person, as a citizen and a church member, should exercise his duty of voting, in order that the best man may be placed in office; otherwise, he is not helping to bring about the kingdom of God. Defects may also be remedied in the economic and social phases of life, as well as in the political phase.

It was decided by official action of the members that the Bible Class should continue meeting in Ford Chapel, which is more convenient than the facilities offered by the Stone Church.

INTER-CITY FLOOR TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD HERE MARCH 20-21

Crack Teams From Four Cities Compete in Annual Basketball Event

On Friday and Saturday nights, March 20 and 21, the annual Tri-State Inter-City Basketball Tournament will be held in the College gymnasium. This is considered the most attractive indoor event of the year, with two games being played each night.

From all indications the class of basketball played will be the best of any tournament yet held. Allegheny High School represents Pittsburgh with the best team turned out in years. Allegheny lost to Homestead last week by two points in the W. P. I. A. L. semi-finals. Spectators remarked that Allegheny was the better team but the breaks of the game were against them. East High School represents Cleveland, and the class of basketball played in the Lake City has been clearly demonstrated here by a victory for the Cleveland team every year the tournament has been held.

Either Academy or Central High School will represent Erie. These two teams are playing a special game to determine who shall enter the tournament here.

The fourth team, it has just been learned, will be Homestead High. Homestead is undoubtedly one of the crack aggregations of western Pennsylvania. This year is the first in the last three that they have not won the W. P. I. A. L. championship, and even this season they were defeated only by Uniontown, the league winner. Homestead is taking the place of a Buffalo team in the Allegheny tournament, Buffalo not being permitted to enter the tournament.

A special rate of admission will be made to students and faculty. As usual these games, not being intercollegiate contests, are not covered by the annual tickets, and are conducted at a heavy expense.

MUSICIAN TO GIVE CONCERT IN CHAPEL TOMORROW NIGHT

Percy Grainger, Noted Pianist, to Play Here as College Concert Artist

Percy Grainger, world famous pianist and composer, who is to give a piano recital in Ford Chapel Thursday night, March 19, at 8:15, is coming as the third number of the College Concert Series and is one of the most eminent musicians that music lovers have ever had an opportunity to hear in this city.

Grainger has won fame from coast to coast in several continents by his playing and by his compositions. His personality is surprising, his pianistic facility is amazing, and his conception of the music he plays is full of an intensity of human feeling that does not fail to reach the listener.

The artist has been lauded highly in foreign as well as domestic cities where he has been heard. From Haarlem, Holland, comes the following: "When Grainger plays the piano disappears, and its place is taken at one moment by a rich and powerful orchestra, at another by the plucking of harp strings, or again by the wistful quality of woodwind instruments. His touch is master of the entire paint box of colors, from a whispering pianissimo to the mightiest fortissimo. Grainger's sensitiveness of touch and his variety of tonal colors stand alone and give him a unique place in the ranks of the world's greatest pianists." On this side of the Atlantic, the "Journal" of Kansas City, Mo., printed the following: "Grainger, the pianist, who meets the most formidable difficulties with greatest ease, received one of the most enthusiastic ovations accorded any artist appearing in Kansis City this season. His excellent work brought him a vertable storm of applause. His interpretations revealed supreme taste and musicianship; the finely delineated colors applied with a sure and sensitive hand made a marvel of tonal beauty."

Edvard Greig, the great Norwegian composer, was a close friend of Percy Grainger and held him as a master of marvelous technique. Grieg first met Grainger in London in 1906. Grainger played Grieg's "Norwegian Folksongs," and "Peasant Dances," strange, extremely modern pieces showing the great Norwegian in his most original and iconoclastic mood. These two works were almost, if not wholly, neglected until he introduced into Great Britain, Scandinavia, Germany, Holland, and other countries, with marked success by Grainger, whose passion

SOUTHERN POET TO GIVE READING AT ALLEGHENY

DUBOSE HEYWOOD TO READ FROM HIS WORKS HERE ON APRIL 1

DuBose Heywood, one of America's leading contemporary poets, will give a reading of his works on Wednesday, April 1, in Ford Memorial Chapel.

Mr. Heywood is a native of Charleston, S. C., and his poetry is expressive of that section of the country. He is a young poet, and Allegheny students are fortunate to have the opportunity of hearing his recital, for in a few years they may be glad to have heard him at the beginning of his career.

A great many of Mr. Heywood's poems are based on two themes: the one being the mountain people of the Blue Ridge district, their joys, and their mode of life; the other, the story of the Old South written in the spirit of the beautiful old southern city, Charleston. His works have appeared for the last five or six years in the North American Review, Atlantic Monthly, Poetry, and Literary Digest, and he has been received very favorably by critics. Heywood's two volumes, "Sky Lines and Horizon" and "Carolina Chansons," contain a collection of his poetry. The latter volume was written in conjunction with Hervey Allen.

DuBose Heywood was one of the founders of the Poetry Society of South Carolina, and at the present time he is secretary of that organization. He is an excellent speaker and reader of his poetry, and he has given several readings at colleges in the South. Mr. Heywood is now on an extensive tour of the North. Some of the larger institutions at which he is to appear are the University of Michigan, University of Chicago, and the University of Pittsburgh. He will come to Allegheny direct from the University of Michigan.

BASKETBALL TEAM HOLDS BANQUET AT LAFAYETTE HOTEL

The members of the varsity basketball squad gave themselves a dinner last Monday night at the Lafayette Hotel. Funds for the meal were provided by a rather peculiar club to which Coach Baker, Manager Carlton, and the various players have been making contributions all season.

After a large and tasty meal, short talks were given by Leo Ross, Captain Judd, and Coach Baker. Reminiscences of the past season and prospects for next year were the main topics of discussion.

Thursday, April 2, Is Date Set For Annual Senior Hop

Thursday, April 2, the evening before the spring recess, has been selected as the date for the annual Senior Hop. This date has purposefully been chosen so as to have a large attendance. The dance is to be a formal affair and will be held in the State Armory.

The committee requests that as last last year, no corsages be worn.

CRANE OPENS VISIT WITH INTERESTING CHAPEL TALK

PASTOR MAKES GOOD IMPRESSION—TO BE HERE TODAY AND TOMORROW

Dr. Henry Crane, pastor of the Centre Methodist Episcopal Church of Malden, Mass., who is to conduct student meetings this week at the College, was introduced to the student body at Chapel yesterday morning by Professor Emig.

After familiarizing himself with the students, Doctor Crane spoke on the four fundamentals of Christianity as he sees it. Right thinking, right loving, right acting, and right believing were given as the four fundamentals. The famous pastor, who is a nephew of Dr. Frank Crane, well known minister and journalist, explained his four points as only he is capable of explaining them.

His address was touching and only a sample of the message that he brings to Allegheny. He looks on Christianity in a broad minded manner, having arrived at the conclusion that religion is only what we make it.

Doctor Crane, assisted by W. C. Johnston, a member of the junior class of the School of Theology of Boston University, will conduct the regular morning Chapel services each day during their stay here, including today and tomorrow. Each afternoon, Doctor Crane will meet any of the students for personal conferences in the French Room of the Library after 2:30 p. m. Meetings will be held each evening in the Chapel at 7:00 p. m.

Doctor Crane has requested that the morning Chapel service not be compulsory during his stay here. "I would rather speak to five students who want to hear me than to 500 who do not want to," says Crane.

Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Swartley accompanied the members of the debating team when they went to Wooster last week.

Mrs. Dale Thomas assisted Mrs. Josette Dennis last Friday in the entertainment of The King's Herald at a tureen supper.

Miss Gardner was in Youngstown on Monday of last week.

THE BASKETBALL SEASON

A record of thirteen victories and four defeats is the showing of the Allegheny basketball team for the season just closed. It is an excellent record; in fact it is the best that an Allegheny floor team has made for many years.

This past basketball season has been proof of the worth of Allegheny and Allegheny athletics. The fact that Wolf was lost through the mid-term examinations is proof that Allegheny intends to uphold her scholastic requirements. The continued winning of the team despite the injury of Captain Judd and McClurg is proof of the fighting spirit of the players. The real basketball displayed and the good training evidenced is proof of the worth of Dick Baker as coach. The teamwork and good fellowship among the players is proof of a real Allegheny spirit.

Thus, the season is a success not only because of games won, but also because the team was truly representative of the Allegheny type of man and Allegheny sportsmanship.

THE APPEARANCE OF DOCTOR CRANE

Every man and woman in the College, after listening to the genuinely sincere speech of Dr. Henry Crane in chapel yesterday morning, knew that there had come to Allegheny for an all too brief stay a man who is worth listening to. There is a vigor in his thought and a wholesomeness in his message that cannot help but stir up within us a longing to make our own lives more purposeful.

There is not a particle of doubt but that Doctor Crane will set the student body to thinking, just as Sherwood Eddy set us to thinking several years ago, but the real success of his visit to Allegheny will not consist in putting into motion a thought-cycle of a week's duration. Whether our visitor brings about any constructive change in student life is a matter that the students themselves have in their own hands. A week of thought is stimulating, but it is not productive unless we translate those thoughts into action ,and make passing flashes of idealism a permanent spiritual light.

CUTTING THE CAMPUS

The time has come for the annual editorial directed at those of us who forget the college tradition, "From the time the snow melts until May 1, no student walks on the grass on the campus." This editorial could have been written last fall with absolute assurance that it would be published in an early spring number of The Campus, because year in and year out there are those students who disobey rules because they know they cannot be punished for it.

These few do not cut across the lawn because there is any time or particular end to be gained by it, but because they know they are doing something that they can get away with. They delight in parading themselves as persons who are indifferent to tradition and convention, because they know there is no punishment involved.

Little or nothing needs to be said concerning the viewpoint of these few narrow minds; the majority has already formed its opinion of them.

who are searching for a doctor, to go to Sganarelle, telling them that her husband has much medical skill but must be beaten into using it. Consequently the servants force the woodcutter to visit Lucinde, a girl who is feigning muteness because she does not want to marry the man of her father's choice.

Jacqueline, a nurse at the home of Geronte, sides with Lucinde in her love affair. Leandre, Lucinde's real lover, tells Sganarelle of the scheme. Sganarelle by giving Lucinde wine and bread apparently cures her; he then arranges a plan for Leandre to elope with her. From this point the plot develops quickly and humorously, and culminates happily.

"La Grammaire," by Labiche," is a one act play centering about Caboussat, an illiterate man who wishes to rise in politics and to be thought learned. But, however, it is to Machut, a veterinary, that credit for his rise in politics should go, and it is Blanche, Caboussat's daughter, that does her father's writing.

For a while dishes had been disappearing from Caboussat's home. When a cow dies from eating glass, which is among the cabbage in the yard, Poitrinas, president of an academy, comes to dig for Roman remains and to ask for the hand of Blanche for his son. Thus it is through Poitrinas that it is dicovered that Jean, the servant, has been burying broken dishes in the garden, and that Caboussat's writing was done by his daughter. The play ends with Blanche's marrying Poitrinas' son.

WOMEN'S BIBLE CLASS HEARS STORY AND DISCUSSION OF PASSION PLAY

Mrs. Emig told the story of the Passion Play to the College Women's Bible Class which met Sunday morning in Ford Chapel. Her talk was especially interesting, since Mrs. Emig saw the Passion Play presented several years ago. In her talk she outlined the play and told how the characters are chosen. A group of pictures which Mrs. Emig brought with her illustrated the discussion. The story of the Passion Play was especially appropriate and inspiring since Easter season is drawing near.

For the next two Sundays Prof. Emig will take charge of the discussion group.

for folk-art and varied activities as a collector of primitive music in Europe, Australia, and in the South Seas enabled him to interpret these numbers as had no other pianist before him. Grieg was amazed. It was after this meeting that Grieg wrote to the Continental European press, "What is nationality? I wrote Norwegian Peasant Dances that none of my own countrymen could play. Here comes this young Australian, and is the first to play them as they ought to be played. He has the true folksong poetry in him, and yet it is quite a way from Australia to Norway. Percy Grainger is a genius, such as we Scandinavians must love."

Grainger is going to present a program here tomorrow evening that is entirely characteristic of the programs he has presented before the audiences

DEBATERS VICTORIOUS

High School, Corry, and W. J. Robinson, member Erie County Bar, Erie, Pa. During the intermission Miss Mary Drake, accompanied at the piano by Miss Gladys Schade, played two violin solos.

The Allegheny negative team, Messrs. C. E. Hammett, A. H. Bartlett, R. H. Demmler, and Leroy Greenwood, alternate, was accompanied to Wooster by Dr. S. S. Swartley. The debate there was held in Memorial Chapel.

The Alleghenians slightly outstripped their opponents in the force of their constructive speeches. Both teams, however, were very efficient in forming their rebuttals and in presentation of material. The decision was 2-1 in favor of Allegheny. Wooster's affirmative team was composed of Messrs. Keith Curtis, Winslow Dummond, and Eugene Conover.

The negative argued that the United States should not ratify the protocol because, (1) that in order to ratify the protocol with any security to ourselves we should also have to join the League of Nations; yet, the protocol emphasizes the principal of force toward which we most objected in the League, (2) that ratification of the protocol would be an unwise and dangerous foreign policy, (3) the United States can do more for the cause of world peace by not ratifying than she could by ratifying. The affirmative maintained that the United States should ratify the protocol because, (1) the protocol is a necessary and a practical means of preventing war, (2) the protocol guarantees stability to the world through arbitration, security, and disarmament, (3) the ratification of the United States is essential to the successful working of the protocol.

Prof. Howard Foster Lowry, of Wooster College, presided at the debate. The judges were Prof. H. D. Hopkins, Professor of Oratory at Heidelberg University, Prof. A. B. Troop, Professor of Economics, Otterbein College, and Mr. Elson Wesler, Attorney at Law, Massillon, Ohio.

This debate marked the end of a successful season for the Allegheny teams with four victories to their credit and no defeats. It also was the last debate in which C. E. Hammett, R. H. Demmler, and R. W. Leeper, who graduate this spring, will represent Allegheny.

Word has been received to the effect that the account of the death of Rev. Elmer E. Higley, published in last week's Campus, is not true. DR. BEILER'S CONTRIBUTIONS TO PERIODICALS ATTRACT MUCH ATTENTION

Dr. I. R. Beiler from time to time has been contributing articles to religious magazines. Among his recent contributions are "Genesis Three in the Light of Modern Knowledge," appearing in the fall number of the Methodist Review and "The Purpose of the Book of Acts" in the Sunday School Journal for April, 1925. The first of these articles, especially, has attracted wide attention.

In an article, "The Sinner and His Clothes," which appears in the Methodist Review for March and April, 1925, he comments upon an Easter pageant which he had seen.

In this pageant the sinner was represented by a man in ragged and untidy clothing. Dr. Beiler disagrees with the author of the pageant and says that, in his opinion, the sinner should have been dressed in attractive clothing, else why is sin so alluring? He adds that the poorly clad person is not so often a sinner himself as the victim of a sinner. He asks the question, "Were Jesus' sinners poor?" and then shows by examples that while some of them were poor, others were exceedingly rich. Dr. Beiler says, too, that he understands the picturing of the sinners as poor was because of the popular idea that righteous people are prosperous, but that the wicked fail materially, and closes by saying that royal purple cloth would have been much more fitting for the dress of the sinner than were the rags.

PRAYER CIRCLES MARK WOMEN'S PREPARATIONS FOR COMING OF DR. CRANE

In preparation for the coming of Dr. Crane, a series of early morning prayer circles were held last week in Hulings Hall.. Wednesday morning the leader was Miss Gertrude Richards, who talked on the subject of "The Force of Prayer." Anna Rightmire answered the question, "What is Prayer?" in her talk Thursday morning. "Some difficulties of Prayer" was the subject discussed Friday morning by the leader, Ada Burris. The last meeting of the series was taken charge of by Cecelia Johnson, who talked on "Unanswered Prayer."

CORRESPONDENCE

To the Editor:

In the leading editorial in The Campus of the 4th inst., I was surprised to see this statement: "Ever since 1833, when the College came under the direction of the Methodist Church, ..."

I do not know whether or not you wrote this editorial, but whoever did write it labored under a grave misapprehension of fact.

The original Act of 1815, incorporating the College, provided, inter alia: "but no particular denomination of Christians shall have any preference;" The present charter of the College provides:

"In choosing members of the Board of Trustees, no particular religious denomination shall have any preference."

As the Board of Trustees are the governing body of the College, it seems clear that Allegheny College was never lawfully "under the direction of the Methodist Church" or any other denomination. It has always been non-sectarian according to its charter, and as long as its charter remains as it is and has been, it cannot be anything else. This is an extremely unfortunate misapprehension as it misrepresents the non-sectarian attitude of the College since its foundation and gives currency and a quasi-official announcement to a widespread impression that that, as a matter of fact, is untrue.

I am hastening to set you and the College right in this matter because it means much to the College and its future. It obtained its privileges under the Carnegie Foundation upon the ground that it was undenominational and that its charter prevented it from being anything else. If your statements were correct, the State of Pennsylvania or some interested person could take proceedings for the forfeiture of its charter and there would be a clear case of violation. But it is not so, and a confession should be made of the error, with the same publicity as it was given.

E. L. MATTERN, '90.

Mrs Lee D. McClean and Mrs. Arthus S. Emig entertained Theta Upsilon at dinner Saturday evening, March 14, at the home of Mrs. McClean.

A building, a bridge, a wall, can be built in a comparatively short space of time; yet we take precautions against unforeseen emergencies and possible loss when building these.

A man's fortune may take the greater part of his life to build—and it may be completely destroyed by one earthquake of the business world.

Is there any logic in failing to protect our own fortunes which it takes so long to built when we invariably protect those objects which can be quickly rebuilt?

ALLEGHENY FINISHES SEASON BY DEFEATING JOHN CARROLL

Blue and Gold Passers Defeat Clevelanders in Extra Period, 27-24

After trailing the husky and hard-playing John Carroll University basketball team until within two minutes of the final whistle, Allegheny's Blue and Gold floormen, playing the final game of the season on the local floor, Saturday, March 14, came through with a rally which tied the score at the end of the regulation game time, and then won out in the extra period by making three points and holding their opponents scoreless. The final count was 27-24. The game developed into the roughest of the season, and the excitement of the large crowd, especially during the last half, was at high pitch.

The visitors led at the end of the first quarter, 9-8, and three spectacular long shots in the second period by Bonosky gave the "Blue Streak" outfit a commanding lead at half time, 17-12. Long heaves by the same player and O'Brien enabled them to hold that five-point advantage until dangerously near the end of the game, although Allegheny crept near several times, mainly due to Thompson's unerring work from the foul line. With two minutes of play remaining, the count stood 23-18, John Carroll leading.

Judd scored a field goal to make it 20-23, and Cubula missed a foul, but just as the crowd had about given up as lost, Juddy sunk another shot from the floor. O'Brien fouled Cibula again, and the big guard came through this time to tie the score. Then with only a half-minute of play remaining, Thompson and McDonald, of the visitors, got into a tangle which resulted in a double foul, and each made his throw good, knotting the score once more. The midget forward tossed in the deadlocking pointer just as the whistle blew.

This, of course, made an extra period necessary, and five minutes of basketball, faster and wilder than that of the final quarter, followed. Ross was fouled at the very start, and he made good. Bonosky lost an excellent chance to put his team in the lead by missing two fouls, and Learm also blew up on a free throw a moment later. The visitors seemed to lose all their excellent shooting ability in this tight place, but they lost none of their ability to rough it, and Joey Thompson soon had another opportunity to add to the Allegheny total. This he did by scoring one of two foul tries. Score 26-24, Allegheny. Bonosky missed another foul, with only a minute of play remaining. Thompson then proceeded to sew up the game and remove all danger of one of Bonosky's desperate long tries finding its mark and tieing the score, by making another foul.

Lawrence Judd and Leo Ross, playing their last games in Blue and Gold uniforms, were in the thick of the fight throughout the game, and both wound up their Allegheny careers in brilliant fashion. Thompson's work shone, too, his splendid foul shooting and fast floor play standing out as one of the best exibitions of the season. Bonosky and Simmons starred for the Cleveland team.

The score:

Allegheny, 27.		John Carroll, 24.
Ross	F.	Bonosky
Thompson	F.	Simmons
Judd	C.	O'Brien
Cibula	G.	Stringer
Rhodes	G.	Toma

Field goals: Allegheny — Judd 3, Thompson 2, Ross, Cibula; John Carroll—Bonosky 4, Simmons 2, O'Brien 2, Stringer, Toma. Foul goals: Allegheny, 13 out of 19; John Carroll, 4 out of 12.

Substitutions: Allegheny — Yengst for Ross, Ross for Yengst, Hartman for Judd; John Carroll—Learm for Simmons, McDonald for O'Brien.

Time of periods: One twenty-minute half and two ten-minute quarters.

Referee, Waite.

FIELD EVENTS OF MID-WINTER MEET TO BE HELD MARCH 20 AND 21

Finals in the field events of the Interclass Midwinter Meet will be held at 4:00 p. m. on Friday, March 20, and at 2:30 p. m. on Saturday, March 21. The hurdles, shot, high jump, potato race, pole vault, and springboard jump will be run off at this time.

Fine results were obtained on Monday, March 9, in the preliminaries of the mile run. The College record was broken by two men, R. Bentley, and A. A. Jones. The time was 4:47½, clipping two and a half seconds off the old record which was 4:50. Both Bentley and Jones made this record while Mackintosh ran third at 4:50½. Blanchard took fourth place in 4:51¾.

CRACK PITT TANK TEAM SWAMPS BLUE AND GOLD

BRODIE ANR STEELE STAR FOR VISITORS—SCORE 54-14

The University of Pittsburgh tank team swamped the Allegheny swimmers by a score of 54-14 at the College pool last Friday afternoon. Pitt managed to take every first place, but usually only by the closest margins. The most interesting race of the meet was the 220 yard free style in which Butts, captain of the Pitt team, and Alex Hill, Allegheny's captain, swam the entire distance never more than two feet apart, and finished in what appeared to be a tie but which proved to be a victory for the Pitt man. High point men for Pitt were Brodie and Steele, who tied with 11¼ points each. Alex Hill scored half of Allegheny's 14 points.

The meet was attended by the largest crowd that has ever witnessed a swimming meet at Allegheny. The meet with Thiel here next Thursday or Friday may probably conclude Allegheny's home schedule for the season.

Summary of events follows: 160 yd. relay—won by Pitt (Bodner, Brodie, Kearn, Steele); time, 1 min. 30 1-5 sec. Fancy diving—1st, Smith, (Pitt); 2nd, Kearn (Pitt); 3rd, Hartman (Allegheny). 40 yd. back stroke—1st, Brodie (Pitt); 2nd, Nichols (Pitt); 3rd, Hill (Allegheny); time 26 4-5 seconds. 40 yd. free style—1st, Steele (P); 2nd, Bodner (P); 3rd, Taft (A); time, 21 1-5 secs. 220 yd. free tsyle—1st, Butts (P); 2nd, Hill (A); 3rd, Bodner (P); time 2 min. 51 4-5 secs. Plunge—1st, Gluck (P); 2nd, Merrill (A); 3rd, Harriff (A); distance, 60 ft., time, 28 4-5 secs. 40 yd. breast stroke—1st, Brodie (P); 2nd, Kearn (P); 3rd, Greenwood (A); time, 26 4-5 secs. 100 yd. free style—1st, Steele (P); 2nd, Hill (A); 3rd, Bodner (P); time, 1 min., 6 3-5 secs.

BLUE AND GOLD DEFEATS WAYNESBURG FIVE 38-31

ALLEGHENY PASSERS SET FAST PACE—CAPTAIN JUDD STARS

Allegheny's quintet scored their twelfth victory of the season on Wednesday night, March 11, when Waynesburg was defeated in a hard-fought and well-played game by the score of 38-31.

The Blue and Gold passers started the game off with a rush and scored seven points before the Yellow Jackets were able to check them. With the Allegheny offense apparently stopped, Waynesburg started their scoring with a long shot by Irwin, and before the first quarter ended, the score was tied at 7-all. Irwin had been fouled just as the whistle to end the period was blown, but he failed to annex either of the two free throws and the score remained tied when the period ended.

During the first part of the second quarter, both teams scored alternately until the score stood at 15-15. Then Coach Baker's clan staged a spurt that gave them a six-point lead as the half ended, Thompson, Judd, and Ross scoring field goals in quick succession by unusually clever floor work. The Allegheny dribblers scored seven field goals during this period.

After the first few minutes of play of the second half, there was little doubt as to the final outcome of the game. Allegheny's superiority was even better displayed in the third quarter than in the second period, 11 points being added to her score while the down-staters were held to four. At the start of the final period, two more points were added to Allegheny's total, and then, as Waynesburg started a fairly successful offensive, Coach Baker started to run in the substitutes who, although unable to increase Allegheny's score, were able to slow up the attack of the Yellow Jackets. During this period Waynesburg scored 12 points to Allegheny's 6.

The game was one of the speediest and best played that the Blue and Gold fans have witnessed this season. Although Waynesburg was unable to break through Allegheny's defense and work the ball under the basket, they gave a fine exhibition of long distance shooting. At times the game became a little rough.

Line-up:

Allegheny, 38.		Waynesburg, 31
Ross	F.	Weitzel
Thompson	F.	Woodward
Judd	C.	Snyder
Rhodes	G.	Irwin
Cibula	G.	Welsh

Substitutions: Allegheny—Hartman for Judd, Westcott for Rhodes, Yengst for Ross, Muse for Thompson; Waynesburg—Irwin for Snyder, Etnyre for Irwin, Etnyre for Woodward, Willis for Etnyre, Homestead for Weitzel.

Four Double-Barreled Reason
Why You Should Buy Life Insurance

FIRST:
(a) You have the advantage of the younger rate. The rate at age 20 is about one-half that of age 40. It does not increase after you have started.
(b) Money without health cannot buy Insurance. If health is yours now, capitalize it at once.

SECOND:
(a) If you are not married, Insurance will be absolutely necessary when you become a benedict.
(b) You create an estate immediately with the first payment.

THIRD:
(a) Insurance helps you to form the habit of saving, thus strengthening your character. Thrift makes for success.
(b) Insurance will make you independent in old age when 11 out of 13 men have to live on charity.

FOURTH:
(a) It is a conservative investment. Insurance Companies cannot speculate, and they are absolutely safe financial institutions.
(b) Men in the higher walks of life favor it. Every member of the late President Harding's Cabinet has recently advised young men to insure while young.

All Legal Reserve Life Insurance Companies are good but none can surpass in strength and friendly service.
