Miss Ida M. Tarbell,

New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I regret that I must miss the tea this afternoon.

Desiring to further its purposes, I enclose check for $10.00 with best wishes for the cause.

By the way, I was much interested in your admirable letter to the New York Times ten days ago about Chatauqua. Most of my college expenses and some of my Theological expenses--Episcopalian though I was--were earned there reporting lectures for the Assembly Herald and the Chatauquan. I would be glad to see something done to set it on its feet. There are thousands who have been benefited by the institution, who probably feel the same way.

A dollar from every one who has felt the beneficent influence of Chatauqua would make an immense endowment, and it would be difficult to find a more worthy institution.

I have almost extravagant opinions of the worth of its Founders, Dr. John H. Vincent and Lewis Miller. I have n't seen yet ^{be} anything written about them as completely appreciative as it might ^{be}.

With greetings to Alleghenians at the Tea and on the ~~campus~~ campus, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Andrew Fleming
