Secretary, Pen and Brush Club
16 East 10th Street, New York.

Dear Pen and Brush Club:

There do occasionally arise events which make me regret that I am located so far from New York; such an event is the reception in honor of Miss Tarbell, notice of which has just reached me. I can think of nothing more worthy of the Pen and Brush Club, and nothing more likely to prove an enjoyable experience.

Greet Miss Tarbell for me with the regard and respect that her long presidency of the Club deserves, and wish her and the Club an equally prosperous future.

With sincere regrets and thanks for the courtesy of your invitation, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Mary Austin
