Dear Miss Rowley:

Your letter of September 20th addressed to Miss Ida M. Tarbell has been received.

As Miss Tarbell is too ill at this time to be permitted to attend to any correspondence or business matters I am acknowledging the letter for her.

I have been assisting Miss Tarbell but a few weeks and consequently am not in a position to prepare a list of names and addresses for invitations to the Dedication. This I regret as I would like to be of help to you.

As soon as Miss Tarbell's health permits you may expect a personal reply from her.

Sincerely,

Mary M. Sullivan

Secretary to Miss Tarbell
