GOLDIE & GUMM
1540 BROADWAY
NEW YORK

April 9th, 1929.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 E. 19th Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I am enclosing herewith correspondence between National Broadcasting Co., Allen T. Simmons, owner of Station WADC and ourselves, relating to an alleged infringing broadcasting of your work "HE KNEW LINCOLN" upon Lincoln's Birthday.

I have not bothered you with this matter heretofore. I thought that I would endeavor to reduce it to its lowest common denominator before doing so.

Before proceeding further with the matter, I would like to acquaint you with everything that has transpired to date. The position of Simmons is entirely untenable, as I have endeavored to explain to him. On the other hand, we have proceeded as far as we can with our negotiations. Apparently, the next step involved is a law suit, which would require the services of an attorney in Akron. Eveready Hour seems to be expecting us to take some action.

After you have read the enclosures, will you kindly communicate to me your thoughts in reference to the matter?

Yours sincerely,

HHG:ES

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library