October 9, 1923

Mr. Paul U. Kellogg,
The Survey,
112 East 19 St.,
New York City.

Dear Mr Kellogg:

Just a line to let you know that I am as eager as ever to do those Lincoln articles, but the outlook is poor at the present moment. I am four-fifths through with this accursed Syndicate stuff but the remaining one-fifth looks bigger than the whole work did at the start. I cannot think of your work until that is off my hands and I have had a little holiday.

Sincerely yours,

Digital Image, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.