Mr. H. W. Fay,
Custodian Lincoln Home,
Springfield, Ill.

My dear Mr. Fay:

Do you remember that I told you I thought my publishers would not stand for more than twenty Lincoln portraits? As a matter of fact, they are going to snap at more, and I am now getting my collection together.

I have been able to get hold of the collection of photographs which were used to illustrate my own McClure work so long ago, and there are some others. Anything that you can help me to, I shall appreciate.

I am remembering with great pleasure your kindness when I was in Springfield.

Sincerely yours,

Ida M. Tarbell Papers, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library
