THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY.
WASHINGTON.

September 12, 1916.

My dear Miss Tarbell:-

I read your statement with the greatest interest and pleasure. I take it you have seen the Evening Post of Monday, which correctly guages the value of your excellent contribution. For fear you have not seen it, I am enclosing it herewith. I am writing to Mr. Woolley, suggesting that your letter be printed as a document and be given the widest circulation. I know it will do a lot of good.

My wife sends her love and we hope to see you soon again.

With sentiments of esteem and high regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Josephus Daniels
Secretary of the Navy.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
New York City.
