O.D.Y. on Labor:

Harold Johnson of Watertown tells me that the workers in his printing office are all interested in Y. believe in him. One day a couple of girls said to him, "Mr. Johnson, if Mr. Young comes into the office at anytime, will you not let us know so that we can see him." And then they made this comment. "He's ~~been our~~ in our corner" This was at the time that they were publishing in the Watertown Times some account of the sweat-shops at the G. E. possibly also the insurance plan.
