

January 24, 1938

My dear Dale Carnegie:

Sorry, but I have more opportunities than I can use to express my beliefs. Of course I appreciate your interest in publicizing me but my eightieth birthday brought me all and more of that sort of thing than was good for me. Wait until I am ninety.

Very sincerely

publicizing

Mr. Dale Carnegie
150 Pinehurst Avenue
New York City