Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
132 East 19th Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I am enclosing a check for the definite amount we named before the job was begun. The expenses I think have already been paid. If not, you will please send a further account. I shall in due time get from the Directors their reaction as to a more careful estimate of the value of your work to us but I want it in the finished form in which it is to accomplish its purpose before I do that. Moreover, the question hinges to a certain extent upon the way in which we find it possible to give the story circulation. I doubt if the question will be ready to be tackled for another month or two. Meanwhile I want you to know how deeply pleased I am myself with the job you have done for us.

Your revision has been gone over very carefully indeed and by some folk other than the original readers. The result is a very few unimportant suggestions which inside of the next two weeks I will send along or perhaps will save for your trip here. In ten minutes we can call the whole thing ready for the pictures and the determination of its means of circulation.

Yours very truly,

A. S. Dennison
