

November 23, 1934

Dear Mrs. Burger:

I must apologise for the long delay in replying to the letter which you wrote me in the Fall in regard to Mr. Burger's Henry George Collection. In that letter you very kindly offer to allow me to use the books and papers.

I only wish that I were now in the position to take advantage of the offer. I know I should find the collection very useful, but I am not working on George now and indeed do not know when I shall be at him again.

I do appreciate, however, your generous letter and I apologize for the long delay in replying.

Very sincerely yours

Mrs. Benjamin W. Burger
697 E. 22nd Street
Brooklyn, New York