November 26, 1920.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th St.,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I am very much obliged to you for your letter dated November 24. You will have received the full draft of Drury's talk. I will send you the tables in a few days. I enclose herewith a summary which Mr. Drury prepared at my request and in which the salient points are for the most part brought out.

Your story of the October 19th meeting was fine. I only hope that the Post may see their way clear to syndicate an article by you on the forthcoming meeting. I am hoping that you are going to be able to tell me that you think Mr. Drury's approach is the one which will be most apt to get real results. It certainly seems so to me.

Yours very sincerely,

Morris L. Cooke.
