fits - Suspicion - Its Suggestion

The Paterson Press:

This editorial and letter are a good example of commercialized suspicion. Commercialized is not the word - ~~nationalized~~ professional suspicion. What I believe is a worn out play the way the world is going and that is an effort in cooperation where we are headed, unionism of all factors. But the class unionism based on the suspicion of the others good intention and quite destitute of any sign of the necessity of men training and growing if they are to succeed in any branch of industry - the effort to keep separate the factors in industry.

It is I think coming to be as worn out as nationalism based on ~~Ford~~. forel
