Morningside College
SIOUX CITY, IOWA

Miss Ida Tarbell,
1203 19th St.,
New York City, N. Y.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Would you not be interested in helping an enterprising group of college girls?

Three years ago the girls of Morningside College purchased a Woman's Athletic Field. The deeds are in the name of the college. The original cost, including interest and expense of landscaping, amounts to about $10,000.00. We have paid on it up to date $4550.00. This amount represents our own personal subscriptions; our profits from cake and candy sales, county fair, circus, "hot dog" lunches and other money-raising activities peculiar to a campus.

We do not have sufficient funds to meet a payment now due, and so we are appealing to a few persons who, we hope, will be interested in our enterprise. Would you not like to send us a gift of $10.00 to apply on this payment now due and thus to encourage us college girls? The check may be sent to Mr. A. B. Gehring, the Business Manager of Morningside College, Sioux City, Iowa.

We shall deeply appreciate your interest and cooperation.

Most gratefully yours,

Lae Kellogg

President of Agora Club (an organization composed of all girls in school)
