May 23, 1928

Mrs. Myra Hanks Rudolph
564 Woodbine Ave.
Warren, Ohio

My dear Mrs. Rudolph:

I have been away from New York for some ten days, and have only just read your letter of May 9, enclosing a copy of the notes sent you by Mrs. Charles F. White.

I have not had a chance to study these documents, but I know Mrs. White's work so well that I feel confident that what she turns in bears on the case. I am very much pleased that you are willing to work with her. I feel certain that the two of you will finally get at the bottom of the matter.

I have a letter from her this morning, telling of further records that she has been able to examine, but saying, very wisely, that she is not going to attempt opinions until she has digested the material.

It is most generous of you, dear Mrs. Rudolph, to do all this copying, and you do it so beautifully. I wish you would let me contribute the copying. Surely you could find a trustworthy stenographer in Warren that would save you this work. I would be so glad to make that little contribution. Here I am, receiving all these valuable documents and doing little more than filing them, while I egg on you and Mrs. White. Please let me bear the expense of the copying henceforth. It will be a real satisfaction to me.

You could of course have several copies made. Keep the first for yourself and let Mr. Warren and myself have carbons. Keep the extra carbons for emergencies. I think a good machine would make half a dozen that were legible. Please, dear Mrs. Rudolph, consent.

Very sincerely yours

Digital Image, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library