Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

An editor of mine, to whom I am rather devoted, Mr. Graeve of The Delineator, wants me to write him an article on Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt. I have told him that I would like to do it but that I should not be willing to attempt it without your consent and without having at least one leisurely interview with you. This need not be until January - not until after the middle of the month, if that is more convenient to you.

I hope, dear Mrs. Roosevelt, that you will consent. It would make me very proud to be able to present you to any circle of readers and that of the Delineator is fairly representative and very wide spread.

I shall await an answer to be given at your convenience of course, with much interest. With the very best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year for you and Governor Roosevelt and all your family, believe me

Very sincerely yours
