

Harry Payne Burton
Editor

Cosmopolitan

INTERNATIONAL MAGAZINE BUILDING
FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET AT EIGHTH AVENUE
NEW YORK

June first, 1932

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Mr. Burton has asked me to forward the enclosed letter to you. He has written Lesley C. Paul that he has spoken to you concerning this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Burton's office

Miss Ida M. Tarbell
120 E. 19th Street
New York City

Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company

GENERAL OFFICES & WORKS.
EAST PITTSBURGH, PA.

IN REPLY PLEASE ADDRESS THE
COMPANY AND REFER TO THE NAME
AND THE DEPARTMENT APPEARING IN THE SIGNATURE.

May 31, 1932

Mr. H.P. Burton, Editor,
Cosmopolitan,
57th Street & 8th Ave.,
New York, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Burton:

I hope you will pardon me for writing again concerning the possibility of Miss Ida Tarbell including Mr. Robertson, Chairman of our Board, in her series of biographies on "Lincolnian Americans". I am, of course, very anxious to know whether or not Miss Tarbell considers this suggestion favorably.

Yours very truly,

Manager, Publicity Bureau

Lesley C. Paul:G

Send to Miss Tarbell