JAMES E. WEST, CHIEF SCOUT EXECUTIVE

October 14th, 1920.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 E. 19th Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

As Mr. Mathiews is away on a trip to the west and will be gone until about the middle of November, I am to-day forwarding the outline of the "Lincoln Problems for the Kentucky Boy Scouts", which you so kindly sent, to Mr. Benson, our Louisville scout executive.

With regard to a similar statement for our Indiana executive, I do not know just how far Mr. Mathiews has gone into this matter and therefore cannot suggest whether this would be advisable or not.

I am bringing the matter of the BOYS' LIFE proof to the attention of Mr. Crump, the Editor, and feel sure that he will write you shortly in this regard.

Very truly yours,

Anna E. Brumbaugh
